

THE IMPORTANCE OF WORKPLACE SAFETY

RANK OF IMPORTANCE

2.6M

people worldwide have work-related accidents every year.

Source: US Bureau of Labor Statistics, 2024

Safety

Family & Maternity Leave

Paid Sick Days

Overtime Pay

HEALTHY & SAFE WORKERS ARE ESSENTIAL

Employers also rank workplace safety as a high priority, understanding that healthy and safe workers are essential to a productive workplace. Employees in turn remain motivated if they feel safe at their workplace; thus, safety is a critical element of productivity for both worker and employer.

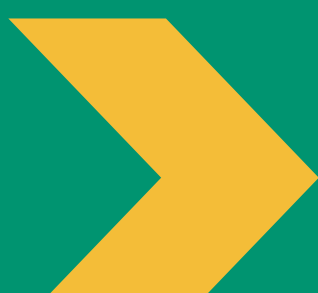

MAJOR FACTORS THAT CONTRIBUTE TO WORKPLACE INJURIES

- Working conditions with poor lighting or poor environmental hygiene
- Lack of protective elements such as missing guard rails on walkways
- Poorly maintained or misused equipment
- Unclear safety procedures or lack of safety training
- Unsafe walking surfaces

INVESTING IN WORKPLACE SAFETY

ORGANIZATIONS THAT INVEST CONSISTENTLY IN SAFETY REALIZE:

- Reduced absenteeism
- Lower turnover rates
- Higher productivity
- Increased employee morale
- Positive brand image

LEADING TO A POSITIVE IMPACT ON THE BOTTOM LINE

